

XHIBITION

Gottesman-Szmelcman Architecture — dezeen — January 24, 2017 — VPM: 1.75 Million

de magazine
zeen

Gordon Gallery opens new exhibition space in Tel Aviv warehouse district

Eleanor Gibson | Published 8 hours ago | Leave a comment

Three large windows bring light into this small concrete gallery in Tel Aviv, designed by Gottesman-Szmelcman Architecture as a new exhibition space for Gordon Gallery.

The Franco-Israeli firm designed the gallery for Hapelech Street on the southern fringe of Tel Aviv. The aim is to extend the city's art scene into the industrial neighbourhood that borders Jaffa, an old Israeli port.

Link to article:

<https://www.dezeen.com/2017/01/24/gordon-gallery-opens-new-exhibition-space-tel-aviv-gottesman-szmelcman-architecture/>